TEXAS DEMOCRATS LAUD WILSON AT DALLAS MEETING

HOT FIGHT ON BAILEY.—T. S. HENDERSON ON ORGANIZATION COMMITTEE

Every mention of the name of President Wilson and of the acts of the National Administration, especially the League of Nations, was cheered at the meeting held in Dallas Saturday, of Democrats called to take action looking to a pro-Wilson delegation to the National Democratic Convention in San Francisco.

It was a meeting of representative Democrats friendly to the Democratic Administration.

Women sat on the platform and when Gen. M. M. Crane, who presided, said women would go to the convention there was wild applause.

Just before the noon recess hour, Senator John M. Henderson of Daingerfield, moved that the resolution committee frame a telegram to President Wilson telling him of the meeting and its purposes. The telegram follows:

'Hon Woodrow Wilson,
"Washington, D. C.

"Enthusiastic statewide mass meeting of loyal, progressive democrats of Texas today adopted ringing resolutions indorsing the incomparable achievements of your administration and took steps to perfect an effective fighting organization to combat its enemies, both inside and outside the party, and to send delegates to San Francisco who will endorse your record as unexampled in the history of the republic.

(Signed)
"THOMAS H. BALL,
Chairman of Conference.
"JASPER COLLINS,
Secretary.—

The conference was called to order by M. M. Crane of Dallas, and Thomas Ball of Houston was nominated as chairman by Marshall Hicks of San Antonio. Committees, appointed as a result of a motion put by National Committeeman Tom B. Love of Dallas, and seconded by Hugh Nugent Fitzgerald of Fort Worth were as follows:

The organization which will grow from the meeting here Saturday of Texas pro-administration Democrats will consist of a Democratic Administration Executive Committee. The personnel of it will be named by Thomas H. Ball, chairman of the convention and will be announced in Houston by him during the next few days. It shall consist of fifteen members. It will have full power in the direction of the pre-convention campaign. In addition to this there shall be a committee known as the Democratic Administration State Central Committee, composed of thirty-one members, one from each senatorial district in the State, which shall be appointed by the Democratic Administration Executive Committee. An advisory relation to the Democratic Administration Executive Committee will be the function of the Central Committee and it will represent the Executive Committee in the management of the campaign in the various counties composing their respective senatorial districts. The resolutions of the committee on organization, which were adopted provided that "the Democratic Administration Executive Committee be authorized, empowered and directed, if it shall deem such course advisable, to make such provisions for the recommendation of candidates for delegates at large to the Democratic National Convention, to be submitted for indorsement at the primary precinct class conventions and county conventions and county conventions and for election by the State convention and also for the submission to such conventions of such other proposals as may be deemed desirable."

EXPECT TO SPUD IN ON BIG MAYSFIELD TEST MONDAY

TRACY - MAYSFIELD OIL AND GAS COMPANY WILL SOON HAVE THREE RIGS.

The Tracy-Maysfield Oil & Gas Company is planning to spud in on its deep test location at Maysfield Monday.

Announcement of this readiness to drill was made this morning by S. M. Messer, vice-president of the company who recently moved to Cameron from his home in Bartlett.

Mr. Messer also announces the shipment of a new oil drilling rig from Desdemona to be placed on the holdings of the company at Tracy. This will give the company three rigs with which to prosecute their development campaign in this county.

W. B. Birchum, secretary for the company, is now in Temple. He has made shipment of 25-50 Avery tractor which will be received here today to operate the drilling machinery on the shallow wells at Tracy. Mr. Birchum expects to return here Friday.

The big standard rig which is now on the ground at Maysfield will be operated by steam equipment. All this machinery is on the ground and work on constructing is progressing rapidly. Officials of the company believe the well will be spudded in Monday if work progress satisfactorily.

Considerable interest is attached to the deep test of the Tracy-Maysfield Oil & Gas Company. While it is the first location to have been made at Maysfield others are coming to this field and already the Buckingham interests have made a location for a deep test out there.

The progress of the company for developing its shallow holdings at Tracy includes the sinking of a number of shallow wells and placing them on pump. Already the machinery necessary for pumping of these wells has been ordered by Secretary Birchum, announcement of which was made last week.

With the announcement of the construction of pipe lines from that field to Cameron by the Texas Eagle Refining and Producing Company here this week, there has been a rapid fire development during the week.

The Tracy-Maysfield Oil & Gas Company is speeding up its operating program so as to get on the field with its rigs as soon as possible in order to make initial production. Already the field crew of the Texas Eagle Refining and Producing Company is on the ground at the San Gabriel holdings and has begun the work of cleaning out wells and placing them on pump.

The location for the deep test at Maysfield is about one mile southeast of the town. For many years the structure at Maysfield has been rich in oil and this remarkable showing of oil has led oil men of prominence as well as leading geologists to pronounce the field one of the best undeveloped crude theaters in the entire country.

The Tracy-Maysfield Oil & Gas Company is going down for a gusher The deep sands will be tested out. The present plans are for 3500 foot bore but a greater depth will be made in the event the big producing strata is not reached under the specified depth.

Company officials make it plain that the effort at Maysfield will be real search for oil and if as oil men say and geologists claim the big pool is there, it will be brought to the surface.

The company is certain of production at Tracy and will pay its stockholders big dividens on the shallow fields alone with other holdings pure velvet and bidding fair to produce when development has been completed.

Ten acres of cotton will be selected alongside the poisoned acreage to show the relative differences in infestation on the sprayed and unsprayed acreage.

Mr. Bnzhaff was introduced by Hon. W. G. Gillis and talked at length on the subject. He pledged his co-operation. On motion of F. S. Lesovsky that the club get behind the experiment it was decided to secure the acreage from a farm centrally located and on good roads and to buy the necessary equipment for poisoning the cotton. The work will be under the direction of the Agricultural Committee of the club of which N. B. Tyson is chairman.

WILL MAKE RACE FOR DELEGATE AT LARGE TO NATIONAL CONVENTION

Austin, March 5.—Governor W. P. Hobby today announced as a candidate for delegate-at-large to the National Democratic convention, and stated positively that he will not be candidate for re-election as Governor.

The Governor's announcement was accepted here as virtually assuring that the present field of gubernatorial candidates would remain unchanged until the July primaries. These candidates are:

R. E. Thomason of El Paso, B. F. Looney of Greenville, Pat M. Neff of Waco and Dwight L. Lewelling of Dallas, all avowed supporters of the National Administration, and former Senator Joseph W. Bailey, leader of the "Bailey faction" of the State Democratic party and an announced anti-Administration man.

Governor Hobby's statement that he will not be a candidate for re-election but will be a candidate for delegate-at-large to the National Democratic convention at San Francisco, is as follows:

"Answering appeals that have come to me from many parts of the State to enter the race, prompts me to say that I will not be a candidate in the primaries this year, but I will be a candidate for delegate-at-large to the National Democratic convention.

"When I complete my present term I will have served three and a half years as Governor, or practically that period which constitutes the customary two terms. I have no desire to hold the office for a longer period. There are candidates in the field who are well qualified in character and ability and who stand for those principles and those achievements which have recently made the Democratic party in both State and Nation so useful to mankind.

"Again, I would not complicate the political situation at this time by entering a race which would confuse many of those thousands who supported me so loyally two years ago, and who now are divided in their allegiance between several candidates for Governor.

Wants People to Determine

"One of the candidates for Governor has assailed the administration of which I am the head, and t he party whose mandate I hold. Having redemmed every plaform pledge and every promise made to the pledge, I am anxious for the people to determine the issue.

"I do not claim that I have been faultless or free of mistakes in my administration of my State's affairs. However, a program of achievement and measures that have advanced the material and moral progress of Texas heretofore unequaled have been put into effect. Therefore not as a means of seeking political preferment, because I am too grateful for the honors already given me to ask that, but as a means of seeking an expression of the people, I will be a candidate for delegate-at-large.

"Under the leadership of the Democratic party our country won the war, and there is nothing in the history of this Republic of which I am prouder than the victory which destroyed Prussian rule and made it possible for freedom and democracy to survive.

Texas Should Support Wilson.

"There are those who were opposed to our going into the war, and they have been complaining of every thing that has happened since. The Democrats of Texas should sustain President Wilson in that gigantic undertaking and indorse his magnificent leadership through it all. A league among nations to avoid wars in the future and save the young manhood of our country from offering their lives on the field of battle became a part of the treaty of peace. The Democrats of Texas should favor such a covenant.

"Our country has been rescued Wall Street financial control by the establishment of the Federal banking system, and interest rates to the farmers have been lowered, and assistance to the farmers in buying farms and becoming home owners has been given through the establishment of the Federal Land Bank system. These forward steps alone should evoke the favor and support of Texas Democrats.

Doors Opened and Closed

"Under my administration the doors of the University of Texas which were closed, have been opened, and the doors of the saloons which were open have been closed. Prohibition has been written into the State Constitution and for the first time women have been given the privilege of voting for candidates for office, and while women have been included as participants in party primaries, aliens have been excluded from the primaries. The public pool rooms have been put out of business.

"The State has the largest bank balance in its history and all of the funds of the State, must, for the first time, be deposited in the State Treasury, not in favored banks, and shall draw interest for the State. The State is now drawing interest of more than 4 per cent of $41,000,000.

"The largest appropriation in the history of the State for rural school education has been made. All educational institutions have been liberally dealt with.

New Election Laws.

"A rigid and effective law has been passed to prevent the control of elections with the use of money by limiting campaign expenses for all offices in this State. A more systematic and businesslike method of administering the State's institutions, together with the budget system as a guide for future appropriation, has been inauguarated.

"Progress has been made toward bringing the docket of the Supreme Court up to date by creating the Commission of Appeals. To protect the people, provision has been made for uniform negotiable instrumentss and for uniform and standard weights and measures.

"I do not assume the credit for triumph of these measures, since the larger share belongs to members of the Legislature who sponsored them. I only believe that upon their merit the Democrats of Texas shoul pass judgment as part of the achievements of my administration.

Favors McAdoo for President.

"I will not attempt to review the entire record of the party in both State and Nation, only that which is sufficient to call for direct action by Democrats everywhere on the questions that confront them. And I would not expect nor accept the honor of serving as a delegate unless it be that the Democrats of Texas sustain and approve the achievements of the National and State Democracy.

"My personal choice for President is Hon. William G. McAdoo of New York, but of course in this matter I will be guided by the instructions or action of the convention.

"Whether the party shall stand by what has been accomplished or go backward is the issue. Whether the party shall stand by what is written in the organic law of the land, or whether the party shall be led off by insidious attacks to break down and nullify the recent amendments to State and Federal Constitutions, must be determined.

"I shall therefore ask the people at the fountain source, the precinct primaries, on May 1, to give a definite expression to the end of indorsing or repudiating that which has been accomplished under my administration and for that purpose I submit my candidacy to the Democrats of Texas for delegate-at-large."

REV. A. J. VALLERY MAKES STATEMENT

Says Tanlac Has Overcome His Troubles and He Feels Like a New Man

"I feel that it would be helping others to tell what Tanlac has done for me," said Rev. A. J. Vallery, living at 834 Chelsa Ave., Memphis, Tenn.

"About three years ago," he continued, "I had a general breakdown that made me very nervous. I had a sour stomach and would spit up undigested food. The pains in my stomach hurt so at times that I thought they would kill me. I also suffered with rheumatic pains in my joints and my kidneys were in so bad shape, my sleep was poor and I felt so tired all the time that I could not do my work.

"Since taking Tanlac I have been relieved of indigestion and those pains are all gone. My kidneys don't trouble me any, I am not nervous like I was and I can sleep fine every night. My strength and energy have been restored and I feel like a new man."

98% Metal

A Maxwell is 98% metal, and the very best metal that metallurgists can specify. Pound for pound it equals the metal in any car built.

The Maxwell is made of light-weight but strong metals.

They had to be light because the mission of the Maxwell is economical transportation.

They had to be strong because the Maxwell is built to carry just as heavy a passenger load over the same roads and at the same speed as any car, despite its price or size.

Any engineer will tell you that in getting that rare combination of strength with lightness high prices must be paid for the metals.

Their use, however, repays the makers of the Maxwell in many ways because each car each day is winning friends.

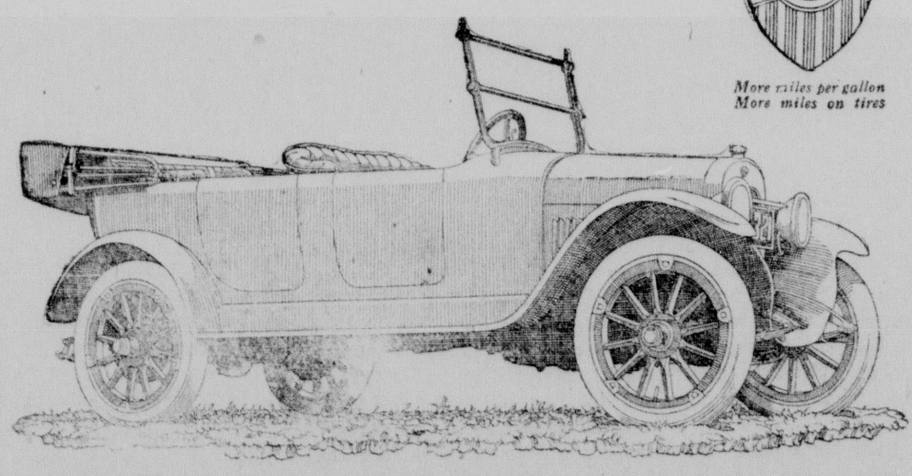

Today these friendships, expressed in terms of cars, are well on the road to 400,000.

You cannot go back of these numbers any more than you can go back of the fact that the sun rises in the morning.

They tell the story; and it's largely a story of what the Maxwell is made of—fine metals.

TWO NOW DEAD IN BORDER RAID

SHERIFF AT NOGALES DENIES HE CROSSED LINE IN CHASE AFTER BANDITS

Nogales, Ariz., March 8.—With the death here early today of J. A. Frazer, American storekeeper of Ruby postoffice, thirty miles from here, the death toll as a result of a raid by Mexican bandits on Frazer's general store Friday was increaesed to two. Alexander Frazer, J. A. Frazer's brother and business partner, died Friday shortly after the attack.

Ray Earhart, Sheriff of Santa Cruz County, returned here today after a fruitless chase after the two bandits. Denial that his posse had crossed the Mexican line in pursuit of the bandits was made by the Sheriff, who led the party in search of the culprits.

Col. E. C. Carnahan, commanding officer of the Nogales military district, declared today he was convinced the Mexican military authorities in Sonora were doing their utmost to apprehend the culprits. He repeated his denial that any American troops had crossed the line.

Colonel Carnahan added he did not belive there would be any punitive expedition into Mexico as the result of the attack on the Frazer brothers.

Troop A of the Tenth Cavalry, a negro regiment, with headquarters at Fort Huachoca, Ariz., scoured the country around Ruby, Ariz., yesterday at the point on the border where the bandits are said to have crossed into Mexico. Colonel Holbrook said that troops under existing orders could cross the border on a "hot trail," but so far the discovery of such a trail had not been reported at his headquarters.

THE GARDEN LADY'S STORIES

(Written for the United States School Garden Army, Bureau of Education, Department of the Interior.)

(The Lady in the Dark Cloak.-

"Did I ever tell you about the Lady in the Dark Cloak?" asked the Garden Lady one summer day that had a hint of fall in its coolness.

"No—Garden Lady—tell—us—about her!" cried the children of the United States School Garden Army.

"I saw her," said the Garden Lady, "by the Compost Heap back of the rockery in the Golden Girls' Garden My old friend the Scarecrow, opened my eyes—my mind's eyes, I mean—to her. She was very strange very beautiful, very wonderful, children," the Garden Lady went on in a queer, deep, quiet-sort-of voice that made pleasant little shivers run up and down their backs. The children looked at her with big eyes opened very wide, as if she had laid some sort of "Spell" upon them.

"I was standing by the rockery just at dusk one evening last summer. Late in August, it was, I believe. I was standing there watching the greeny-gold sky that turned to orange and rose color above, while a sort of blue-brown gauzy curtain of shadow settled down over the world, and I was wondering if I'd catch a sight of the Enchanted Princess when she came out of her castle in the rockery. A cool, quiet wind blew up all at once out of nowhere, and I thought and fall would soon be here. I felt sort of sorry. You know how you feel when you begin to count the days before the end of vacation. Yet I was a little bit excited, too, and sort of thrilly, you know, with a queer kind of happiness as if something wonderful were going to happen, and as if I were about to be made a sharer in some beautiful secret. I always feel that way when the seasons change, you know. Don't you?"

"Yes; I know," said Big Sister Peggy, softly.

"A yellow leaf drifted down from the old Apple-Tree, touched my hair lightly, and settled to the ground. I thought that I felt rather than heard a step, and that a trailing dress brushed against me."

Part II

"All of a sudden, a golden-mellow voice at my elbow made me jump. My friend, the Scarecrow, stood beside me. I glanced back toward the center of the Garden to see if his image was still standing there.

"'Ho! Garden Lady! I'm there at my post,' he said—'that is, my image is. My Real Self is here by you. Have you noticed the Lady in the Dark Cloak who walks in this Garden sometimes, walks so softly in her full, trailing cloak of darkness?'

"'Tell me about her, Guardian Knight,' I whispered. 'It seems to me that I felt her pass just now, though I did not see her.'

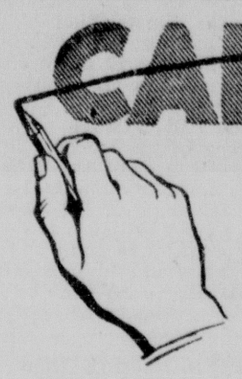

"'I've seen her—dimly—Garden Lady, a goood many times. I belive the first time was when my Moon Maiden first left me. I hardly saw her—that is, er—uh, well, she was a sort of shadow, you know, as if the soft evening darkness had made a dim shape for itself. And as she came, I heard no sound, except a little, faintest sort of stir among the Garden Children, as if they had all taken a deep breath and then sent it out in a faint, faint sigh. She seemed to come quite close to me, and I thought I looked into her eyes. They were deep—deep and dark—tnd they seemed to grow larger and deeper and I looked, and then to fill with strange lights, with beautiful, blazing stars and suns moving through them. Then suddenly she stepped past me toward my pansy bed with a little rush of cool air, and I thought I heard a voice that seemed very close and yet far, far away, sort of chanting like, you know,

"'Come, my little ones, my pretty ones. It is time for sleep—si-e-e-p.'

"Then she stood up, and all at once she grew so tall, so grand, that her head seemed to tower toward the sky; and, strange to say, I could see right through her. She was just a shadow, and all through the shadowy figure the stars were shining.'"

CALOMEL

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury—quicksilver; and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.

TWO NOW DEAD IN BORDER RAID

Nogales, Ariz., March 8.—With the death here early today of J. A. Frazer, American storekeeper of Ruby postoffice, thirty miles from here, the death toll as a result of a raid by Mexican bandits on Frazer's general store Friday was increaesed to two. Alexander Frazer, J. A. Frazer's brother and business partner, died Friday shortly after the attack.

Ray Earhart, Sheriff of Santa Cruz County, returned here today after a fruitless chase after the two bandits. Denial that his posse had crossed the Mexican line in pursuit of the bandits was made by the Sheriff, who led the party in search of the culprits.

Col. E. C. Carnahan, commanding officer of the Nogales military district, declared today he was convinced the Mexican military authorities in Sonora were doing their utmost to apprehend the culprits. He repeated his denial that any American troops had crossed the line.

Colonel Carnahan added he did not belive there would be any punitive expedition into Mexico as the result of the attack on the Frazer brothers.

Troop A of the Tenth Cavalry, a negro regiment, with headquarters at Fort Huachoca, Ariz., scoured the country around Ruby, Ariz., yesterday at the point on the border where the bandits are said to have crossed into Mexico. Colonel Holbrook said that troops under existing orders could cross the border on a "hot trail," but so far the discovery of such a trail had not been reported at his headquarters.

THE GARDEN LADY'S STORIES

(Written for the United States School Garden Army, Bureau of Education, Department of the Interior.)

(The Lady in the Dark Cloak.-

"Did I ever tell you about the Lady in the Dark Cloak?" asked the Garden Lady one summer day that had a hint of fall in its coolness.

"No—Garden Lady—tell—us—about her!" cried the children of the United States School Garden Army.

"I saw her," said the Garden Lady, "by the Compost Heap back of the rockery in the Golden Girls' Garden My old friend the Scarecrow, opened my eyes—my mind's eyes, I mean—to her. She was very strange, very beautiful, very wonderful, children," the Garden Lady went on in a queer, deep, quiet-sort-of voice that made pleasant little shivers run up and down their backs. The children looked at her with big eyes opened very wide, as if she had laid some sort of "Spell" upon them.

"I was standing by the rockery just at dusk one evening last summer. Late in August, it was, I believe. I was standing there watching the greeny-gold sky that turned to orange and rose color above, while a sort of blue-brown gauzy curtain of shadow settled down over the world, and I was wondering if I'd catch a sight of the Enchanted Princess when she came out of her castle in the rockery. A cool, outer wind blew up all at once out of nowhere, and I change and fall would soon be here. I felt sort of sorry. You know how you feel when you begin to count the days before the end of vacation. Yet I was a little bit excited, too, and sort of thrilly, you know, with a queer kind of happiness as if something wonderful were going to happen, and as if I were about to be made a sharer in some beautiful secret. Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receiv similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. —— had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

TAKE

The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health . . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, rundown and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

42 CLUB MEETS

At her home on Hefley Heights, last Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock Mrs. W. A. Gillon entertained the 42 Club.

Promptly at the appointed hour twenty-three ladies assembled. The Club members repaired to the library for a short business session, it being time for the annual election for president. Miss Mary Lake Henderson was unanimously elected president for the ensuing year. No club reporter was elected as Miss Henderson and Mrs. Gillon write for the two town papers. A rising vote of thanks was given the retiring president, Miss Vance Hardy for the faithful and efficient service during the past year.

Mrs. Gillon had prepared a Valentine party for February 5th, but owing to the flu epidemic it was postponed.

Although, the March winds were blowing the Valentine party was given. Score cards were cupids with U. S. mail bags, cupid with carrier pigeons, cupids with flowers and Valentines.

Five tables were arranged and the game was soon in full swing. 84 favors were announced. They were crying baby Valentine letters, soldier boys and Red Cross nurses with blinking eyes, gilded wish bones, red heart boxes, red hearts with favor concealed inside and last, butwhat pleased the girls present, U. S. mail bags with a love letter inside. The special honor guest, Mrs. Tom Henderson, Jr., although having been in Texas only two weeks, caught in to old Texas 42 and played with zeal and won a number of games.

At the conclusion, Mrs. John Watson was found to have won the highest number of 84 favors and was given a heart box with candy. For perseverance—bidding 84 oftenest and losing—Mrs. T. N. Herring, a big Valentine on a stand. Mrs. Stanley Bowles and Mrs. John Watson tied for a heart box of candy. Mrs. Watson was the fortunate one.

There were nine Club members present: Mesdames Oxsheer Smith, Albert Triggs, John Watson, Jim Watson, W. A. Gillon, Misses Mary Lake Henderson, Vance Hardy and Clara Thomas. Guests present were: Mesdames R. D. Brown, Giles Avriett, J. L. Clinton, J. N. Crawford, R. L Batte, Sr., U. S. Hearrell, T. N. Herring, Boyd Wells of Austin, Stanley Bowles of Dallas, Hubert Atkinson, J. M. Ralston, Tom Hamilton, A. J. Akin, W. T. Hefley, Frank Lesovsky, and our bride, Mrs. Tom Henderson, Jr.

Mrs. Gillon was assisted throughout the afternoon, mark score, distributing 84 favors and serving by Mesdames Tom Hamilton, W. T. Hefley and A. J. Akin.

A salad course, consisting of chicken salad, fruit salad, home-made bread and butter sandwiches, pickles, was served.

The Club adjourned to meet next time with Mrs. John Mangum.

SIGMA PHI'S AND KILL-KARES

Miss Estelle Coleman entertained the Sigma Phi's and Kill-Kares quite nicely at her home Friday afternoon. Assisted by her mother and sister, the members and guests were met and made comfortable.

The usual diversion, needle work, was participated in amidst spirited conversation and laughter. When fingers and tongues tired their ears were delighted with several musical selections—vocal and instrumental—by Miss Curtis, and several readings by Miss Hillman.

At the close of the afternoon a delicious salad course consisting of meat salad, fruit salad, olives, sandwiches, hot tea was served.

Guests other than Club members were: Mesdames O. L. Kidd, Orsheer Smith, Boyd Wells of Austin, Tom Henderson, Jr., and J. N. Crawford, and Misses Work, Cain, Hillman, Carroll, Gladys Walker, Ross and Curtis.

Not until a late hour did the guests take their departure, after thanking Miss Estelle for a very pleasant afternoon.

Their next meeting will be be with Miss Vance Hardy.

The people of Cameron will be glad to learn that Mr. Jefferson B. White, Manager of The Herald, has moved his family, Mrs. White and baby, to our little city. Mrs. White had been on an extended visit to relatives at Nixon. They are now domiciled at Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hefley's.

Miss Rosalie Baskin was hostess to the "Just Us Girls" Club Saturday afternoon. It being a cold day the girls preferred the fire to outside sports. Conversation, story-telling and jokes were the principal diversion until Mrs. Baskin delighted the crowd with serving fruit salad, peanut butter sandwiches, tunie sandwiches and pickles. The club members present were Frances Garrison, Mary Sue Denson, Mary Virginia Atkinson, Eloise Rogers, Elizabeth Adams and Lillie Kate Beckerman. Invited guests were: Misses Mary and Reba Young.

C. S. Peyton, district manager for the Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone Company at Cleburne, was in Camern this week in the interest of the company and greeting old friends.

42 CLUB MEETS

At her home on Hefley Heights, last Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Mrs. W. A. Gillon entertained the 42 Club.

Promptly at the appointed hour twenty-three ladies assembled. The Club members repaired to the library for a short business session, it being time for the annual election for president. Miss Mary Lake Henderson was unanimously elected president for the ensuing year. No club reporter was elected as Miss Henderson and Mrs. Gillon write for the two town papers. A rising vote of thanks was given the retiring president, Miss Vance Hardy for the faithful and efficient service during the past year.

Mrs. Gillon had prepared a Valentine party for February 5th, but owing to the flu epidemic it was postponed.

Although, the March winds were blowing the Valentine party was given. Score cards were cupids with U. S. mail bags, cupid with carrier pigeons, cupids with flowers and Valentines.

Five tables were arranged and the game was soon in full swing. 84 favors were announced. They were crying baby Valentine letters, soldier boys and Red Cross nurses with blinking eyes, gilded wish bones, red heart boxes, red hearts with favor concealed inside and last, butwhat pleased the girls present, U. S. mail bags with a love letter inside. The special honor guest, Mrs. Tom Henderson, Jr., although having been in Texas only two weeks, caught in to old Texas 42 and played with zeal and won a number of games.

At the conclusion, Mrs. John Watson was found to have won the highest number of 84 favors and was given a heart box with candy. For perseverance—bidding 84 oftenest and losing—Mrs. T. N. Herring, a big Valentine on a stand. Mrs. Stanley Bowles and Mrs. John Watson tied for a heart box of candy. Mrs. Watson was the fortunate one.

There were nine Club members present: Mesdames Oxsheer Smith, Albert Triggs, John Watson, Jim Watson, W. A. Gillon, Misses Mary Lake Henderson, Vance Hardy and Clara Thomas. Guests present were: Mesdames R. D. Brown, Giles Avriett, J. L. Clinton, J. N. Crawford, R. L. Batte, Sr., U. S. Hearrell, T. N. Herring, Boyd Wells of Austin, Stanley Bowles of Dallas, Hubert Atkinson, J. M. Ralston, Tom Hamilton, A. J. Akin, W. T. Hefley, Frank Lesovsky, and our bride, Mrs. Tom Henderson, Jr.

Mrs. Gillon was assisted throughout the afternoon, mark score, distributing 84 favors and serving by Mesdames Tom Hamilton, W. T. Hefley and A. J. Akin.

A salad course, consisting of chicken salad, fruit salad, home-made bread and butter sandwiches, pickles, was served.

The Club adjourned to meet next time with Mrs. John Mangum.

SIGMA PHI'S AND KILL-KARES

Miss Estelle Coleman entertained the Sigma Phi's and Kill-Kares quite nicely at her home Friday afternoon. Assisted by her mother and sister, the members and guests were met and made comfortable.

The usual diversion, needle work, was participated in amidst spirited conversation and laughter. When fingers and tongues tired their ears were delighted with several musical selections—vocal and instrumental—by Miss Curtis, and several readings by Miss Hillman.

At the close of the afternoon a delicious salad course consisting of meat salad, fruit salad, olives, sandwiches, hot tea was served.

Guests other than Club members were: Mesdames O. L. Kidd, Orsheer Smith, Boyd Wells of Austin, Tom Henderson, Jr., and J. N. Crawford, and Misses Work, Cain, Hillman, Carroll, Gladys Walker, Ross and Curtis.

Not until a late hour did the guests take their departure, after thanking Miss Estelle for a very pleasant afternoon.

Their next meeting will be be with Miss Vance Hardy.

The people of Cameron will be glad to learn that Mr. Jefferson B. White, Manager of The Herald, has moved his family, Mrs. White and baby, to our little city. Mrs. White had been on an extended visit to relatives at Nixon. They are now domiciled at Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hefley's.

Miss Rosalie Baskin was hostess to the "Just Us Girls" Club Saturday afternoon. It being a cold day the girls preferred the fire to outside sports. Conversation, story-telling and jokes were the principal diversion until Mrs. Baskin delighted the crowd with serving fruit salad, peanut butter sandwiches, tunie sandwiches and pickles. The club members present were Frances Garrison, Mary Sue Denson, Mary Virginia Atkinson, Eloise Rogers, Elizabeth Adams and Lillie Kate Beckerman. Invited guests were: Misses Mary and Reba Young.

C. S. Peyton, district manager for the Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone Company at Cleburne, was in Camern this week in the interest of the company and greeting old friends.

CATTLE TICK GIVEN NO REST

The first week in March saw the resuming of cattle dipping for the purpose of the eradication of the cattle tick. There were in this county over 2500 cattle dipped last week with 32 infested herds showing and 95 head of ticky cattle. The week was cold and disagreeable for the work and not all the cattle were dipped which should have been, however with the coming of warmer weather this week more vigorous assault will be made upon the cattle fever tick and thus will they be killed before they have a chance to acquire a large and active family.

An area of 219,581 square miles in U. S. remain to be freed from the domination of the tick. Officials of the Bureau of Animal Industry, United States Departmen of Agriculture, are confident that a large slice of this area will be taken from quarantine as result of the 1920 campaign. Milam County, Texas should be among those counties of Texas to go above the line on December 1st.

Nogales, Ariz, March 10.—A 3-year-old baby was crucified on a crude cross in the mountains near Altar, Ariz., Thursday, Jesus Alvarez, the father, is being held by the authorities. He is also charged with slaying his wife.

Alvarez, a wealthy rancher and Mexican by birth, returned to his home after a drunken orgy Thursday. He killed his wife and carried the baby into the mountains, where he built a cross and nailed the child to it, according to the authorities.

He was kneeling before the cross praying when arrested.

The baby was rescued and physicians last night said it would recover from the nail wounds in its hands and feet.

BAILEY REFUSES TO MEET CHALLENGE OF THOMASON

FORMER SENATOR SAYS IT IS POLITICAL PLOT HATCHED BY TOM LOVE.

Fort Worth, Texas, March 10.—Joseph Weldon Bailey Bailey candidate for Governor, will not accept the challenge of Robert E. Thomason of El Paso to enter into a preferential elimination primary in Cooke County according to a statement authorized by Tom C. Bradley of Fort Worth.

Bradely is the close personal and political friend of Bailey.

The positive statement that Senator Bailey will not accept the Thomason challenge concludes an announcement bristling with criticism of Thomas B. Love of Dallas, who is credited with being responsible for Thomason's challenge.

Bradley's Statement

The authorized statement from Bradley follows:

I read Thomason's challenge to Bailey published in The Star-Telegram day before yesterday and wired Senator Bailey at once in substance as follows:

"Do not pay any attention to Thomason's challenge to enter preferential elimination primary in Cooke County, Texas, to determine whether or not Bailey or Thomason should withdraw from the race." My reasons for wiring Bailey were:

First—Mr. Thomason and the most active supporters in Cooke County had already several months prior to Senator Bailey's entry into the Governor's race, canvassed Cooke County and secured a written pledge signed by not less, perhaps than 75 or 80 per cent of the legal voters of the county, including every officer, political leader, prominent farmer, bankers merchants, laboring people together with all of the ministers of the gospel.

Couldn't Act for Others

Second—It occurred to me that notwithstanding the fact that Senator Bailey would be able to defeat Mr. Thomason by a large majority, yet it would not be fair to Senator Bailey and his many friends throughout the State of Texas, for Cooke County, whose population is less than the towns of Fort Worth and Dallas, and whose voting strength will not exceed 10,000 votes, to determine whether or not more than 400,000 other good citizens in the various counties of Texas, should have the right of saying whether or not Senator Bailey should be Governor of Texas. And even if Senator Bailey was willing to accept Thomason's challenge, which is of course an unfair one to Mr. Bailey he (Bailey) would not have any right to bargain off other people's rights to participate in the election to determine whether or not he should be their Governor and from my viewpoint, nether Senator Bailey nor Mr. Thomason, who are both claiming that they base their candidacy on fundamental and sacred principles of government, have any right to gamble off the rights of their many supporters, who reside in many counties other than in Cooke, in a fuss over who will get the most votes in Cooke County. And—another thing that occurs to my mind is that if Thomason really wanted to leave this matter to Cooke County alone, why did he not add in his challenge a statement releasing all of those who had signed his written pledge in Cooke County? This, it seems to me, would be the only way that any conscientious man would under the circumstances, want any man to accept his challenge. I never considered it fair for one man to mark his cards and play them with a fellow who did not know the marks.

Blamed Tom Love

Third—The very minute I read Thomason's challenge, I recognized that it was a well planned political trick of Thomas B. Love of Dallas—the man who took his college course in polities in the State of Missouri, and who then came to Texas and before he had time to wear out one pair of shoes after his arrival in this State succeeded in having himself elected to the Legislature from Dallas County. It was the plan of this man to keep Bailey engaged in a purely local contest in Cooke County in order to keep him away from the people in the other counties in the State until after the May convention, for Love well knows that if Senator Bailey is permitted to reach the masses of the voters in the various counties of this State prior to the May convention primary, which will be held to select delegates in the national convention, he, Love, will not succeed in going as a delegate.

I can state that Senator Bailey will not be drawn into the Cooke County controversy hatched up by his enemies, among whom Thomas B. Love is the leader.

Third—The very minute I read Thomason's challenge, I recognized that it was a well planned political trick of Thomas B. Love of Dallas—the man who took his college course in polities in the State of Missouri, and who then came to Texas and before he had time to wear out one pair of shoes after his arrival in this State succeeded in having himself elected to the Legislature from Dallas County. It was the plan of this man to keep Bailey engaged in a purely local contest in Cooke County in order to keep him away from the people in the other counties in the State until after the May convention, for Love well knows that if Senator Bailey is permitted to reach the masses of the voters in the various counties of this State prior to the May convention primary, which will be held to select delegates in the national convention, he, Love, will not succeed in going as a delegate.

I can state that Senator Bailey will not be drawn into the Cooke County controversy hatched up by his enemies, among whom Thomas B. Love is the leader.

WELL NEAR DEVINE LOOKS LIKE GUSHER

SAN ANTONIO OPERATORS BELIEVE DRILL HAS STRUCK LOUISIANA SANDS

San Antonio, March 6.—Kimball No. 1, on the John Reeder survey No. 28, two miles southwest of Devine, has drilled through eighteen feet of sand and shale and is now being cleaned up preparatory to bringing the well in, which will probably be some time the coming week, and officials of the Kimball Oil & Development Company are confident they will have a well that will be a good payingp roposition.

So confident are the officials that they have oil in paying quantities that they have already closed a contract for another well. The showing in the Kimball No. 1 is exceptionally good in the opinion of oil men, but on the development of the well will be drilled to lower depths or to the same depth as the Kimbal No. 1.

Forfeit has already been posted for the second well, which will be on a 5,000-acre tract west of the Kimball No. 1. Two other contracts have been made for wells in the same vicinity by other oil companies on the strength largely of the showing in Kimball No. 1. The second well by the Kimball Oil & Development Company will be started inside of sixty days, according to to the contract.

T. E. Garrett has made a drilling contract for a well four miles northeast of Deyine which will be started inside of ninety days, and W. O. Browne, backed by Kansas capital, will drill a well on a 3,000- acre tract eight miles south of Devine, work to start inside of ninety days. Forfeits have been posted for the execution of the contracts.

Kimball No. 1 is now down to a depth of 2,300 feet, with heavy showings of oil.

In the drilling at Pleasanton and also in the Kimball No. 1, for the first time in South Texas drillers have encountered the Anacach lime, which is the regular Louisiana oil sand. In the Pleasanton well this was encountered at a depth of 2700 feet, but was struck 400 feet higher in the Kimball No. 1. After going through a thin strata of the lime in the Pleasanton well, a regular oil sand was encountered which bore water. This was followed by sixty-five feet of the lime, followed by thirty feet of oil sand, the first eighteen feet carrying gas and the next twelve feet of oil. The Pleasanton well is also nearly ready to be brought in and may be developed the coming week.

Weeping and Worn Movie Star Flees From Interviewers

Los Angeles, March 6.—Mary Pickford, weeping and worn, stumbled from the train here today on her return from Minden, Nev., where she obtained a divorce decree Tuesday from Owen Moore.

Miss Pickford waited until the passengers had all left the car, then peered out and seeing newspaper men and cameramen flanked by a crowd of the curious she fled from the opposite side of the car. As she ran with tears streaming down her face, she stumbled and fell. Her mother helped her up and they fled to a waiting automobile and sped away.

Miss Pickford would not pause to answer the questions fired at her by eager interviewers, but her mother spoke for her.

"This is an entirely a personal matter," she said, "and neither the papers nor the public have any right to be prying into it. Why can't you leave the poor little girl alone? She's nervous and broken up. Can't you see she's crying? This is just needless cruely."

active, energetic secretary. Mr. Kunz in accepting the office of secretary wil devote his time to the affairs of the company and will begin at once to build up this industry in which he has every confidence of success.

A. M. Lankford, Treasurer of the company, needs no introduction to the people of Cameron and Milam County. Mr. Lankford is owner and operator of the Lankford Hotel in Cameron. He has resided in Cameron and Milam county for the past 30 years. As a successful business man who merits the confidence of every one, Mr.Lankford will make the company a good and capable treasurer and his association with the company will bring strength to the organization.

Those who have kept in close touch with developments in Milam county during the past two months will remember that some two weeks ago T. R. Duncan, of Durant, Oklahoma, was in the city and expressed an opinion concerning the field but at the time made no statement concerning what part he would play in the development of Milam county field. With the announcement of the organization of the Longhorn Refining Company it is also made public that Mr. Duncan has become interested in the refinery. Mr. Duncan is a wealthy oil man and has extensive holdings in Tulsa and in North Texas fields. It is expected that Mr. Duncan will soon visit Cameron in the interest of the company and keep in personal touch with the development in Milam county.

The organization of the Longhorn Refining Company stands out as the most spectacular development during the week in the oil fields of this county and its announcement brings to light something of the confidence oil men who know have in the future production of the local oil fields.

active, energetic secretary. Mr. Kunz in accepting the office of secretary wil devote his time to the affairs of the company and will begin at once to build up this industry in which he has every confidence of success.

A. M. Lankford, Treasurer of the company, needs no introduction to the people of Cameron and Milam County. Mr. Lankford is owner and operator of the Lankford Hotel in Cameron. He has resided in Cameron and Milam county for the past 30 years. As a successful business man who merits the confidence of every one, Mr.Lankford will make the company a good and capable treasurer and his association with the company will bring strength to the organization.

Those who have kept in close touch with developments in Milam county during the past two months will remember that some two weeks ago T. R. Duncan, of Durant, Oklahoma, was in the city and expressed an opinion concerning the field but at the time made no statement concerning what part he would play in the development of Milam county field. With the announcement of the organization of the Longhorn Refining Company it is also made public that Mr. Duncan has become interested in the refinery. Mr. Duncan is a wealthy oil man and has extensive holdings in Tulsa and in North Texas fields. It is expected that Mr. Duncan will soon visit Cameron in the interest of the company and keep in personal touch with the development in Milam county.

The organization of the Longhorn Refining Company stands out as the most spectacular development during the week in the oil fields of this county and its announcement brings to light something of the confidence oil men who know have in the future production of the local oil fields.

REFINERY IN CAMERON

BIG DIVIDENDS - CAPITALIZATION, $250,000 - SHARES, $25.00

THE LONGHORN REFINING COMPANY is composed of well known Milam County men who have faith in the future of Cameron and the oil fields that are now being rapidly developed. They believe that this is the greatest oil region in Texas and that development is all that is necessary to make this the great crude oil producing center of Central Texas, about which is woven the magic dreams of crude kings and geologists who have pronounced it the best.

Oil is flowing from wells in Tracy. Gushers will soon be brought in if geological and structural facts may be relied upon. This crude oil must be refined. Cameron is the logical point. Already pipe lines are being surveyed out. This will be the terminal for the wealth which is soon to pour in from that field. Millionaires are going to be made in Milam County oil. Independent fortunes are going to be made from refinery dividends. This is the clarion call of opportunity to you.

There is a vast difference between speculative projects and investments. This is an investment, not a speculation. Oil must be refined. 39 Bi-Products from oil. The oil is here. Get in with men who are going to do things. A hundred invested now—will mean thousands in future years. Refinery stock is different. It pays more.

What This Refinery Means

The following tabulation of figures are based on a 2000 barrel daily capacity. Forty-two gallons per barrel, car load lots f. o. b. Refinery.

30 per cent gasoline, or 25,200 gallons at 18 cents per gallon equals $4,536 daily.

15 per cent Pale Oil, or 12,600 gallons at 10½ cents per gallon, equals $1890 daily.

20 per cent kerosene, or 16,800 gallons at 7½ cents per gallon equalls $1260 daily.

10 per cent gas-oils or 8400 gallons at 5 cents per gallon, equals $420 daily.

20 per cent grease stock, 16,800 gallons at 16 cents per gallon, equals $1728 daily.

Gross daily income $9,834.

Less cost of crude oil and operating expenses.

2000 barrels crude oil at $2.40 per barrel	$4,800.00
Fuel, Labor and Water per day	250.00
Insurance and Depreciation	50.00
Overhead and Miscellaneous	50.00
Total Daily Expenses	$5,150.00

ACTUAL TOTAL NET DAILY PROFIT $4,684.00

Counting 360 working days in a year would give our shareholders an annual profit of $1,686,240.00.

Fifty per cent of the earnings of this company shall be paid to the shareholders of said company at least once a year. Dividends shall be paid quarterly.

Consider These Facts---

——That this is the most profitable end of the oil business. That this is no speculation but an investment.

——That the demand for high grade gasoline is steadly increasing.

——That this is your first opportunity and probably the last.

——That this means a life-time income.

——That our Capital Stock is only $250,000 which means bigger gasoline men.

——That it only takes about ninety days to construct a plant which means quick returns on your investment.

——That this plant when running at capacity should pay from 150 to 300 per cent, per year.

——That this means a big pay roll for Cameron and Milam County.

——That this will bring 100 to 150 working men here.

——That this means from 500 to 750 people.

——That this means a monthly pay roll of from $3000 to $6000 per month.

——That this means from $36,000 to $72,000 per year to the town where this refinery shall be built.

——That this means the opening and maximum development of the Tracy Oil Field, the greatest shallow oil field in the State of Texas.

——That this means an increase in the population of Cameron and Milam County from 500 to 1000 people.

——That this will cause a tremendous increase in real estate values in Cameron and Milam county.

——That this is a home company, composed of home men.

——That this will give the people of Cameron and Milam County and andjoining counties a higher grade of gasoline delivered at your door.

——That if the Oil Companies that are at present drilling in Milam county strike a large flow of gas this company will erect a Casing Head Plant in connection with the Refinery.

Think What It Means To You!

A few hundred invested—or a few dollars will insure you a big income.

Send in your application today. We invite an investigation of the Company. Our plan is fair and will make you rich.

ONE of the best propositions that has ever been offered to the public. We are going to pay a dividend. 50 wells in the Tracy Field will make 250 barrels per day. That means 91,250 barrels per year. At the present price this would be $273,750.00 per year—170 per cent a year on your money.

We will spud in our deep test at Maysfield next week on one of the best and largest structures in Texas. Why are some of the best oil men in the business today wanting acreage at Maysfield? Because they know we are going to strike something good there.

The big wells will keep coming in every day and if your name is not on the roll, you will never receive a dividend.

You have brains, but the other fellow rides around in his twin six motor car, goes to the seashore on his vacation, and lives in a fine house.

Has Taken Advantage of Some Opportunity

ARE YOU GOING TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS OPPORTUNITY AND SEND IN YOUR APPLICATION NOW?

Delay in the oil business is fatal. Oil opportunities do no wait. While the man of indecision hesitates, the stock is sold, the well comes in, leases go skyward, and those who obeyed their impulse to buy when the opportunity was first presented, awaken to find their tomorrows filled with fortune, and the man who hesitates has lost another golden opportunity.

The value of opportunity is in taking advantage of it. INVEST WITH US TODAY.

Remember This Opportunity is Open For a Limited Time.

Our Stock Is Selling Fast.

When capital has come in to care for all necessary development work, there will be no more stock for investors at anything like the present figure. When the wells have been drilled, when the gushers have begun to pour out sudden wealth, then it is too late for you to join. Then you can only envy those who ACTED and found for themselves

SUCCESS AND PROSPERITY

THIS is why we advise you to ACT NOW—to take every share of this stock you can possibly carry. Do not turn your back on an oppotunity that is bound to put you on EASY STREET for the REST OF YOUR LIFE.

ONE of the best propositions that has ever been offered to the public. We are going to pay a dividend. 50 wells in the Tracy Field will make 250 barrels per day. That means 91,250 barrels per year. At the present price this would be $273,750.00 per year—170 per cent a year on your money.

We will spud in our deep test at Maysfield next week on one of the best and largest structures in Texas. Why are some of the best oil men in the business today wanting acreage at Maysfield? Because they know we are going to strike something good there.

$500.00 invested in the American Pet is worth today	$1,500,000.00
$500.00 invested in the Parafine Oil Co is worth today	80,000.00
$500.00 invested in the Pinal Oil Co. is worth today	54,000.00
$500.00 invested in the Lucile Oil Co. is worth today	80,000.00
$500.00 invested in the Farmers' Pet (Humble) is worth today	100,000.00
$500.00 invested in the Home Oil Co. is worth today	200,000.00

The big wells will keep coming in every day and if your name is not on the roll, you will never receive a dividend.

You have brains, but the other fellow rides around in his twin six motor car, goes to the seashore on his vacation, and lives in a fine house.

Has Taken Advantage of Some Opportunity

ARE YOU GOING TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS OPPORTUNITY AND SEND IN YOUR APPLICATION NOW?

Delay in the oil business is fatal. Oil opportunities do no wait. While the man of indecision hesitates, the stock is sold, the well comes in, leases go skyward, and those who obeyed their impulse to buy when the opportunity was first presented, awaken to find their tomorrows filled with fortune, and the man who hesitates has lost another golden opportunity.

The value of opportunity is in taking advantage of it. INVEST WITH US TODAY.

Remember This Opportunity is Open For a Limited Time.

Our Stock Is Selling Fast.

When capital has come in to care for all necessary development work, there will be no more stock for investors at anything like the present figure. When the wells have been drilled, when the gushers have begun to pour out sudden wealth, then it is too late for you to join. Then you can only envy those who ACTED and found for themselves

SUCCESS AND PROSPERITY

THIS is why we advise you to ACT NOW—to take every share of this stock you can possibly carry. Do not turn your back on an oppotunity that is bound to put you on EASY STREET for the REST OF YOUR LIFE.

San Francisco, Cal., March 6.—Herbert Hoover will not permit his name to be used in the California presidential primary as he is not a candidate for the office, aerording to a telegram from him read here today by Gavin McNab and the Democratic state committee meeting.

'While highly sensible of the great honor implied in the desire of many friends to place my name in nomination as a candidate in Democratic primaries," the telegram read, "I deem it due to them to advise them that I am not a candidate. I therefore cannot approve of the use of my name for that purpose."

Mr. McAdoo said he favored the sending of uninstructed delegates to the national convention.

HOUSEWORK IS BURDEN

Woman's lot is a weary one at best. But with backache and other distressing kidney ills life indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many Cameron women. Read what Mrs. Martha Moore, E. 2nd Street, Cameron, says: "For a great many years Doan's Kidney Pills have been my standard medicine for kidney complaint. I have taken Doan's when my back and sides have been so lame and sore that I couldn't do my housework. When my kidneys were irregular, I would get dizzy spells when stooping that just blinded me. That condition made me nervous. I felt out of sorts. When I had attacks of that kind, I took Doan's Kidney Pills and about one box of them strengthened my kidneys and restored by to good health. I very gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone."

COMMERCIAL CLUB FORMED AT MILANO

BUSINESS MEN OF CITY ENLIST FARMERS AND BOTH WILL CO-OPERATE

(Milano Gazette

Forty citizens of Milano met at the I. O. O. F. hall Monday night at the suggestion of our banker, Mr. W. O. Newton, and a rousing and enthusiastic meeting full of new born pep, such as Milano had never before seen, was recorded as a new chapter to the commercial progress of Milano. The meeting was called for the purpose of organizing some kind of commercial club or business league.

After temporary officers were chosen the name of "The Milano Commercial Club" was voted as the name of the organization. Permanent officers were then elected.

W. O. Newton was elected president; J. H. Burnett, vice president; J. D. Peeples, Jr., secretary; R. Brennan, treasurer. R. E. Thweatt, L. T. Hughes, J. S. Beard, G. W. Hilliard and L. Peeples were appointed a committee to draft a set of by-laws. W. O. Newton was elected Road Representative for Milano's interests to meet with the Commissioners' Court on the road bond matters.

Among the many good matters brought up at this meeting was that of making the Commercial Club as much an organization for the farmers of the Milano country as for the business men of the town, and every farmer has a special invitation to be present at the next special meeting. This is an organization where the business and the farmers are going to pull together for each other's welfare.

The next meeting of the Club will be held next Monday night at the I. O. O. F. hall, March 8th, at which time the names of the members will be enrolled, the by-laws read and further organization perfected.

The meeting Monday night was in session until sometime after 11 o'clock and one of the most eventful nights in Milano history was timed off. After the meeting had disposed of all business matters at hand the citizens present were served with a plentiful supply of ham sandwiches and hot coffee by the H. R. Hairston restaurant, after which the meeting adjourned and the citizens went homeward with a new born feeling of public spirit in their hearts.

Holland Again Denies Demand for Ex-Kaiser

The Hague, March 10.—The Dutch government today for the second time refused to deliver the former German Emperor to the Allies for trial.

Night and day shifts are working on the Kaiser's Doorn residence. A high fence about the house at Doorn, to which objection was made at first because it obstructed a public road, is now near completion and the authorities have waived opposition to the work. A trainload of furniture arrived at Doorn from Berlin several months ago and recently five additional truckloads were received there. The building has been radically remodeled, half of the first floor being prepared for Count Hohenzollern's occupancy, while one of the wings will be given over to the former Empress.

While unprotected by high walls or a moat, the Doorn estate is in reality a 200-acre place that can be easily guarded and on which the Dutch government expects William of Hohenzollern to spend the rest of his days.

The Actuelle

Announcing the arrival of the New Pathe Actuelle ----the most revolutionary development since the entrance of the Phonograph itself.

Exit Sound Box, Tone Arm and Horn---

What is going to happen to the sound box, the horn, and the tone arm? We don't need them. Let us see what office they now perform. The tone is sipped out of the channels of the record by the sapphire. It carries the vibrations through the sound box into the tone arm—that peculiar metal device—through this it travels on into the tone chamber, through the horn, and then outward to you.

The problem of the phonograph maker is to take out of the way the tone obstacles which affect the reproduction in a lesser degree, though a similar way to what has just been described.

The tone box is in the way. The tone arm is in the way. The tone chamber and the horn are in the way. They stand as obstacles. The record holds the reproduction of the living musician. How to get it out with the least change of timbre and tonal quality?

The Actuelle, by a sweep of the pen, throws into the discard all the obstacles. The tone is sipped by the sapphire and directly out again to you. That is the entire process.

CORSICANA DEEP WELL NOW DRILLING AT 2,580

Corsicana, March 10.—The oil situation in Corsicana remains unchanged. The deep test being drilled by the Corsicana Deep Well Companp in the Burk pool at Powell remains in an untested condition. This well has caused considerable excitement and as a result many leases have changed hands at big figuers. The well is 2,530 feet deep and the past ten days has been spent in cleaning out the hole and preparing to test.

The Cor-Tex. Oil Company, drilling just south of the city limits, are down over 1,700 feet are drilling in white lime.

The deep test being drilled by the Oklahoma Petroleum and Gasoline Company near Richland has been closed down several days waiting for material.

TEST NEAR MINERAL WELLS REPORTED PRODUCING 500

Mineral Wells, Texas, March 10.—The Empire Gas and Fuel Company well on the Wheeler lease, seven miles south of Mineral Wells, came in and is estimated at 500 barrels, flowing by heads. The drill is one foot in the sand, with 100 feet of cave-in the hole. The well is 3,800 feet deep. It is shut down for storage. This is a purely wildcat well and opens up a large territory.

Hundreds of people visited the well today. Lease and royalty are busy.

WICHITA OPERATOR TO DRILL IN SAN SABA

San Saba, Texas, March 8.—Don Farnsworth, oil operator, and millionaire of Wichita Falls, has been spending a few deys here. He arrived last week to attend the Pecan Growers' Association.

Before leaving, he placed a proposition with the leaseholders of the county which will guarantee a good test of this wildcat field. According to his plan, two wells will be started at once and he proposes to put $10,000 of his own money into the project.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marino, and little daughter, Jackeline, have returned to Dallas after a visit to Mrs. Marino's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luce.

INCOME TAX RETURNS DUE

MARCH 15 LAST FILING DATE.

Net Incomes of $1,000 or Over, if Single; or $2,000 or Over if Married, Must Be Reported.

The Income Tax imposed by Act of Congress on earnings of the year 1919 is now being collected.

Returns under oath must be made on or before March 15 by every citizen and resident who had a net income for 1919 amounting to:

$1,000 or over, if single; or if married and living apart from wife (or husband); or if widowed or divorced.

$2,000 or over, if married and living with wife (or husband).

The status of the person on the last day of the year fixes the status for the year with respect to the above requirements.

Under any of these circumstances a return must be made, even though no tax is due.

Husband and wife must consider the income of both, plus that of dependent minor children, in meeting this requirement; and, if sufficient to require a return, all items must be shown in a joint return or in separate returns of husband and wife.

A single person with minor dependents must include the income of such dependents.

A minor who has a net income of $1,000 or more is not considered a dependent, and must file a separate return.

Personal returns should be made on Form 1040A, unless the net income exceeded $5,000, in which case Form 1040 should be used.

Residents of Texas should file their returns with, and make payments of Income Tax to, Alexander S. Walker, Collector of Internal Revenue, Austin, Tex.

How to Figure Income.

The best way to find out whether one must file a return is to get a Form 1040A and follow the instructions printed on it. That form will serve as a reminder of every item of income, and if a return is due it tells how to prepare and file it.

If in doubt on any point as to income or deductions, a person may secure free advice and aid from the nearest Internal Revenue office.

Guesswork, estimates and other hit-or-miss methods are barred when a person is making out his Income Tax return. Accuracy and completeness must be insisted upon. The return is a sworn statement. As such it must be thorough and accurate.

Salaried persons and wage earners must ascertain the actual compensation received. Overtime, bonuses, shares in the profits of a business, value of quarters and board furnished by the employer and other items which are compensations for services must be included.

It must be borne in mind that compensation may be paid in other forms than in cash. A bonus paid in Liberty Bonds is taxable at the market value of the bonds. A note received in payment for services is taxable income at its face value, and the interest upon it is also taxable.

Other Returns Due.

Every partnership doing business in the United States must file a return on Form 1065; and every personal service corporation must file a similar return.

Corporations must file annual returns on Form 1120.

Trustees, executors, administrators and others acting in a fiduciary capacity are required to file returns. In some cases, Form 1041 is used; in others, Form 1040; and still others, returns on both forms are required.

Information returns, on Forms 1099 and 1096, must be filed by every organization, firm or person who paid, during 1919, an amount of $1,000 in salary, wages, interest, rent, or other fixed or determinable income to another person, partnership, personal service corporation or fiduciary. These information returns should be forwarded directly to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue (sorting division), Washington, D. C.

HOW WE MADE GOOD MONEY LAST YEAR

Hastings Declares That Southern Farmers Can Repeat the Past Year's Prosperity, If They Will

Atlanta, Ga.—(Special.)—"The generality of Southern farmers made real money out of their farming operations in 1919, more profit than most of them ever made before, despite boll weevil, unfavorable seasons and labor shortage."

This statement was made recently by H. G. Hastings, president of both the Southeastern Fair Association and the Georgia State Chamber of Commerce, in discussing general farm conditions in the South.

"Very naturally most of this farm prosperity is credited to the high price of cotton and, of course, the high price helped, but the real down-at-the-bottom reason was that most farmers owned their cotton when it was made instead of 'owing' it for food and grain bought on credit, as used to be the case when the practice was to grow all or nearly all cotton and buy on credit all or nearly all food, grain, etc.

"Present farm prosperity is due largely to what Dr. Bradford Knapp, head of the demonstration work, has so aptly termed 'Safe Farming,' which is nothing more or less than growing on home acres every pound of food, grain and forage needed for family and live stock use. When this is done every other available acre can wisely and safely be put in cotton or other cash crop.

"The expense of making cotton or other cash crop is, either directly or indirectly, the cost of food for man and beast that works the crop. Most items of food and grain can be produced on southern farms at one-third to one-half what those same items cost from supply merchants.

"We made money last year by following the only way that insures permanent farm prosperity, home production of home food and grain needs. We can repeat this money making in 1920 by following the same common sense way that put us right last year and will keep us right in 1920 and every year, if we follow it up and not gamble in cotton planting.

"It's a great temptation to gamble in cotton in 1920—gamble in cotton in the field, which is just as bad as gambling in cotton on the New York or New Orleans exchanges. I know some folks who are planning to double cotton acreage this year. They are headed for disaster sooner or later. The wise farmer will play safe in 1920—play safe by doing 'safe farming.'"

WHEELER WELL PUMPING 100 BARRELS NEAR RISING STAR

Rising Star, Eastland Co., Texas., March 10.The Wheeler well, five miles south of Rising Star, is making around 100 barrels on the pump at about 2,360 feet. This well was shot a few days back, but not enough gas has been encountered to cause the well to flow. The best informed oil talent looks upon the Wheeler discovery as being a very important factor in determining future explorations in that section.

The Hill well, five miles north of Rising Star, is making a strong flow of gas from the top of the gray lime at about 2,910 feet. Eight-inch casing is being set and drilling will be resumed tomorrow. This well is being watched very closely by all operators and speculation in acreage around the well is rife.

The major companies are all planning heavy development campaigns in the Rising Star section during the coming summer months. Many locations are being made and material for derricks is being hauled from every direction.

The Humble Company has spudded in on its Ingram No. 1, offsetting the Hilburn well, which is still holding its initial production and has never been drlled into sand.

The Chamber of Commerce at Rising Star is alrt to the conditions that face this erstwhile quiet village and is planning for the immediate instllation of a sewerage system and water plant. A contract has been let for the erection of a three-story brick hotel and many other buildings are being erected, and many more are being planned.

CORSICANA DEEP WELL NOW DRILLING AT 2,580

Corsicana, March 10.—The oil situation in Corsicana remains unchanged. The deep test being drilled by the Corsicana Deep Well Companp in the Burk pool at Powell remains in an untested condition. This well has caused considerable excitement and as a result many leases have changed hands at big figuers. The well is 2,530 feet deep and the past ten days has been spent in cleaning out the hole and preparing to test.

The Cor-Tex. Oil Company, drilling just south of the city limits, are down over 1,700 feet are drilling in white lime.

The deep test being drilled by the Oklahoma Petroleum and Gasoline Company near Richland has been closed down several days waiting for material.

TEST NEAR MINERAL WELLS REPORTED PRODUCING 500

Mineral Wells, Texas, March 10.—The Empire Gas and Fuel Company well on the Wheeler lease, seven miles south of Mineral Wells, came in and is estimated at 500 barrels, flowing by heads. The drill is one foot in the sand, with 100 feet of cave-in the hole. The well is 3,800 feet deep. It is shut down for storage. This is a purely wildcat well and opens up a large territory.

Hundreds of people visited the well today. Lease and royalty are busy.

WICHITA OPERATOR TO DRILL IN SAN SABA

San Saba, Texas, March 8.—Don Farnsworth, oil operator, and millionaire of Wichita Falls, has been spending a few deys here. He arrived last week to attend the Pecan Growers' Association.

Before leaving, he placed a proposition with the leaseholders of the county which will guarantee a good test of this wildcat field. According to his plan, two wells will be started at once and he proposes to put $10,000 of his own money into the project.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marino, and little daughter, Jackeline, have returned to Dallas after a visit to Mrs. Marino's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luce.

INCOME TAX RETURNS DUE

MARCH 15 LAST FILING DATE.

Net Incomes of $1,000 or Over, if Single; or $2,000 or Over if Married, Must Be Reported.

The Income Tax imposed by Act of Congress on earnings of the year 1919 is now being collected.

Returns under oath must be made on or before March 15 by every citizen and resident who had a net income for 1919 amounting to:

$1,000 or over, if single; or if married and living apart from wife (or husband); or if widowed or divorced.

$2,000 or over, if married and living with wife (or husband).

The status of the person on the last day of the year fixes the status for the year with respect to the above requirements.

Under any of these circumstances a return must be made, even though no tax is due.

Husband and wife must consider the income of both, plus that of dependent minor children, in meeting this requirement; and, if sufficient to require a return, all items must be shown in a joint return or in separate returns of husband and wife.

A single person with minor dependents must inciude the income of such dependents.

A minor who has a net income of $1,000 or more is not considered a dependent, and must file a separate return.

Personal returns should be made on Form 1040A, unless the net income exceeded $5,000, in which case Form 1040 should be used.

Residents of Texas should file their returns with, and make payments of Income Tax to, Alexander S. Walker, Collector of Internal Revenue, Austin, Tex.

How to Figure Income.

The best way to find out whether one must file a return is to get a Form 1040A and follow the instructions printed on it. That form will serve as a reminder of every item of income, and if a return is due it tells how to prepare and file it.

If in doubt on any point as to income or deductions, a person may secure free advice and aid from the nearest Internal Revenue office.

Guesswork, estimates and other hit-or-miss methods are barred when a person is making out his Income Tax return. Accuracy and completeness must be insisted upon. The return is a sworn statement. As such it must be thorough and accurate.

Salaried persons and wage earners must ascertain the actual compensation received. Overtime, bonuses, shares in the profits of a business, value of quarters and board furnished by the employer and other items which are compensations for services must be included.

It must be borne in mind that compensation may be paid in other forms than in cash. A bonus paid in Liberty Bonds is taxable at the market value of the bonds. A note received in payment for services is taxable income at its face value, and the interest upon it is also taxable.

Other Returns Due.

Every partnership doing business in the United States must file a return on Form 1065; and every personal service corporation must file a similar return.

Corporations must file annual returns on Form 1120.

Trustees, executors, administrators and others acting in a fiduciary capacity are required to file returns. In some cases, Form 1041 is used; in others, Form 1040; and still others, returns on both forms are required.

Information returns, on Forms 1099 and 1096, must be filed by every organization, firm or person who paid, during 1919, an amount of $1,000 in salary, wages, interest, rent, or other fixed or determinable income to another person, partnership, personal service corporation or fiduciary. These information returns should be forwarded directly to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue (sorting division), Washington, D. C.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Our meeting is going on as advertised, but remember this is going to be a short meeting. Rev. W. R. Minter, D.D., who is doing the preaching is a busy pastor with his own charge to care for and we cannot hold him for long, and so we are insisting that if you wish to have any part in our meeting that you come out to the services today. We have two services a day. In the afternoon at 3, and in the evening at 7:45. These services are one hour long and you can make your plans on that basis. We will not keep you, over the hour, but we would like to have you there for that hour. At 4:05 Dr. Minter gives a 15-minute service for the school children. The services will, if we can arrange it, go over Sunday for a few days.

H. R. MacFADYEN, Pastor.

YEGGMEN FAIL IN EFFORT TO LOOT FT. WORTH BANK

CROWBARS USED ON VAULT WHERE $25,000 IN CASH IS DEPOSITED

Fort Worth, March 6.—An unsuccessful attempt was made lat Friday the robbers is about fifteen inches rob the steel vault of the National Bank of Commerce, Sixth and Main streets.

Two crowbars, each six feet long, a torch and two five-foot gas tanks of high pressure were found on the floor near the vault when the bank was opened by employes Saturday.

A hole had been started with crowbars in the six inch brick wall that guards the steel vault. It is believed that the robbers were frightened away by some noise from the outside just as they started their jobs, as only one of the crowbars had been used on the brick. The hole made by the robbers is abolt fifteen inches long and several inches wide.

Worked Near Window

Judging from the equipment the men who entered the bank intended to dig a hole through the brick wall, burn through the steel with the high-powered torch and then gain entrance into the vault.

The location of the vault where the job was started is only about thirty feet from a big window on the Sixth street side of the bank. Providing a light was used, the yeggmen could have been seen from the street.

City Detectives Dysart and James, who investigated the attempted robbery, believe it was the work of professionals. They said the equipment found in the bank shows that the men were not amateurs in safe robbery. The torch, according to Dysart, would have burned its way through the vault, had the brick wall been removed.

Entrance ot the bank was gained by climbing the fire escape in the alley to the window in the balcony. Steps lead from the balcony to the vault.

Tools are Stolen

The torch and gas tanks were stolen from G. E. Cromers' shop at 806 Throckmorton street. A window to the shop was found broken Saturday morning. It is not known at what time this place was robbed. It has not yet been learned where the crowbars came from.

An automobile apparently was used in the attempted robbery to carry the tools to the alley back of the bank as the crowbars and tanks weigh several hundred pounds.

The work of the robbers does not resemble that of yeggmen who recently robbed several North Texas banks, according to city detectives. The attempted job here resembles more the work of profesionals, they say.

$25,000 in Vault

The vault contained about $25,000 in cash. However, this would have the maximum that could have been stolen as the bank had just transferred more than $100,00 worth of Liberty bonds and currency.

All national banks are thoroughly protected with burglary insurance, which means there would have been no loss to the bank or its customers had the yeggmen been successful.

Evolution, Not Revolution, Only Hope for Mexico

By SAMUEL GUY INMAN
of the Interchurch World Movement

American mission boards are the only organizations which have developed a practical, comprehensive, inclusive program for solving the Mexican problem.

The Mexican problem is not a question of a revolution being squelched, but an evolution to be guided. Mission boards are planning to help Mexico solve her land problems by establishing agricultural schools; her social problems by setting up social centers in every town of over 15,000 population; her educational problems by establishing a university in Mexico City and enlarging and multiplying high schools, normal and day schools. A brotherly hand must be lent to aid the Mexican people in eliminating their 70 per cent. of illiteracy.

AUTO YEGGMEN GET $5000 FROM HARRISBURG BANK

FLASH GUNS ON WOMEN EMPLOYE AND FORCE CASHIER INTO VAULT

Houston, Texas, March 6.—Two masked highwaymen, wearing false mustaches, eyebrows and side whiskers, with their hats pulled down on their heads and with blue bandanna handkerchiefs around their necks, held up the cashier, two women assistants and two customers, robbed the American State Bank of Harrisburg of $4000 or $5000 shortly after noon Saturday and made their escape in a touring car after they imprisoned the bank occupants in a small and airtight safe deposit vault.

Within ten minutes after the robbers had ambled away, John T. Callahan, a customer, entered the bank found it empty and summoned Walter H. Myers, vice president, who has a drug store across the street. Realizing that the bank probably had been robbed, Mr. Myers dashed across the street and ran directly to the vault. A customer, who arrived at the same time followed him.

They heard F. A. Collins, cashier, endeavoring to force his way through the steel doors. One of the customers asked for a description of the hold up men. Collins yelled for them to get a hole through the safe to let in air.

Mr. Collins had taken screws from the lock with a screwdriver in an attempt to force his way out. This made it impossible for those outside to work the combination.

Will T. Sellman, a shipyard worker, who had entered the bank, was sent to a blacksmith shop for tools. With sledge hammers and chisels a hole about two feet in diameter was cut through the brick wall. A safe expert was summoned from Houston and the vault door was opened.

Other Banks Find Funds

When Mr. Myers, the vice president, entered the bank, he ordered the doors to be closed to customers. One of the customers telephoned the police, detectives and sheriff's departments and asked aid from virtually all Houston banks. Banks in this city sent out approximately $15,000 to cover the loss and enable the Harrisburg bank to open for business. Within one hour after robbery the doors of the bank were thrown open for business.

The ship companies and ship channels factories carry some pay rolls through the bank. Besides casning ship workers' checks there was no attempt made to "run" the bank.

While the doors were closed and helpers worked furiously to liberate those in the vault, the news of the robbery spread quickly throughout Harrisburg and Houston. Motorcycle policemen of Harrisburg traced the bandits' car down the Telephone cutoff road, through the Country club, down Harrisburg boulevard and thru Eastwood. Trace of the robbers was lost when they entered the business section of Houston.

Holdups Well Concealed.

When the doors of the banks were thrown open, hundreds of residents from Harrisburg and Houston flocked to the scene. Officers made an attempt to round up all persons who could give a description of the holdups.

Due to the fact that the men stood behind the railing most of the time, only their faces were noticed.

The bank faces east on Broadway Aevnue. On the south side of the bank runs Cypress street and at the rear of the bank is Madena avenue. The bank is one story high and contains one large room partitioned off in cages and offices.

Directly in front of the door is the cashier's cage, occupied by Mr. Collins. There are two windows to his office, one directly in front of the door and one at the side. Behind his cage is that of the assistant cashier, who was at dinner at the time of the robbery. Behind that is note teller's position, occupied by Mrs. D.D. Beard. Further to the rear is the safe deposit vault, which was occupied by Miss Corinne Cosby.

The robbers drove down Cypress and stopped their car at the side of the bank. The top was down and the motor was left running. Looking from a window facing her cage, Mrs Beard noticed the automobile. The windshield was shaking and she remarked that some one had left the motor running. Paying no more attention to the automobile, she continued with her work. Mr. Collins was checking some figures in the front cage.

Entry Skillful

The two men entered the bank quietly. One of the men stepped to Mr. Collins' window with his back turned directly upon two customers, Mr. and Mrs. B. Cook of Pasadena, who sat on the left. The other man turned through the president's office at the right and walked to the rear of Mr. Collins' cage.

Then the first man said "Hands up." Thinking it was one of the employes or a customer playing a trick on him, Mr. Collins replied, "In a minute." After checking a few more figures he looked up and into the muzzle of a pistol thrust under the window of cage. Mr. Collins put up his hand and stepped back. The robber at the rear then spoke to him. The tallest man, who stood in the lobby, passed to the left of the cages and threw his gun upon Mrs. Beard and Mr. and Mrs. Cook.

The shortest robber entered Mr. Collins' cage and rifled the drawers. He made no attempt to take several thousand dollars worth of checks and Liberty Bonds. After working quietly he walked into the assistant cashier's office and took some currency. He then entered the other cages, picking up bills only. He worked quietly and swiftly and finished in a few minutes. After he left the cages he demanded that Mr. Collins and Mrs. Beard enter the vault where Miss Cosby was working. She was not aware of the situation until the others had been ordered in the vault. The man in the lobby then demanded that the two customers pass through the president's office and step into the vault. The door was then closed and the combination nob was spun.

Escape Made Cleverly

The robbers dashed to their car, drove down Broadway to the Telephone road and turned toward Houston at a rapid speed, according to a negro who saw them depart. At the Country Club the men stopped the car, raised the top and cast off their makeup, according to the story of road workers who saw them.

A good description of the men was given by two small boys who saw them drive down Cypress. The men driving slowly by while they were pasting on the false mustache, eyebrows and whiskers, they said. According to the lads both men were rather young, but were made up to look old. The mustaches were very long and pointed, like those used in cheap plays of Wild West shows. One of the boys remarked: "I bet they are going to hold up the bank." His friend laughed at the idea, saying: "Why, they are only show men."

According to bank employes the men were careful to make no finger prints on the wood work. Only bills were taken and no clews could be found. No one was able to give the number of the automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Deadwyler, of Hamilton, came in last Saturday to visit Mrs. Deadwyler's sister, Mrs. Roy Griffith. Mr. Deadwyler returned to Hamilton Monday.

A full attendance was urged for next meeting as it will be the annual election of officers and report for last year's work read.

Dallas, Texas, March 6.—Sophomores at the Southern Methodist University of Dallas determined that George A. Brewer, president of the freshman class there, should not attend the freshman dance Saturday night, captured him Friday afternoon and brought him to Fort Worth. He was stripped of his money and valuables and given over to the Sophomores of Texas Christian University to guard.

Brewer, however, got an opportunity to escape during the afternoon and succeeded in reaching the Fort Worth Undertaking Company parlors at Texas and Lamar Streets closely pursued by his guards. He prevailed on a friend at the Undertaking Company to aid him in his escape, was placed in a hearse and driven to Arlington and caught the car to Dallas from there.

His guards, having traced him to the undertaking establishment, spent the long, cold night outside its doors waiting for their victim to reappear. Brewer is hiding in Dallas.

AUTO YEGGMEN GET $5000 FROM HARRISBURG BANK

FLASH GUNS ON WOMEN EMPLOYE AND FORCE CASHIER INTO VAULT

Houston, Texas, March 6.—Two masked highwaymen, wearing false mustaches, eyebrows and side whiskers, with their hats pulled down on their heads and with blue bandanna handkerchiefs around their necks, held up the cashier, two women assistants and two customers, robbed the American State Bank of Harrisburg of $4000 or $5000 shortly after noon Saturday and made their escape in a touring car after they imprisoned the bank occupants in a small and airtight safe deposit vault.

Within ten minutes after the robbers had ambled away, John T. Callahan, a customer, entered the bank found it empty and summoned Walter H. Myers, vice president, who has a drug store across the street. Realizing that the bank probably had been robbed, Mr. Myers dashed across the street and ran directly to the vault. A customer, who arrived at the same time, followed him.

They heard F. A. Collins, cashier, endeavoring to force his way through the steel doors. One of the customers asked for a description of the hold up men. Collins yelled for them to get a hole through the safe to let in air.

Mr. Collins had taken screws from the lock with a screwdriver in an attempt to force his way out. This made it impossible for those outside to work the combination.

Will T. Sellman, a shipyard worker, who had entered the bank, was sent to a blacksmith shop for tools. With sledge hammers and chisels a hole about two feet in diameter was cut through the brick wall. A safe expert was summoned from Houston and the vault door was opened.

Other Banks Find Funds

When Mr. Myers, the vice president, entered the bank, he ordered the doors to be closed to customers. One of the customers telephoned the police, detectives and sheriff's departments and asked aid from virtually all Houston banks. Banks in this city sent out approximately $15,000 to cover the loss and enable the Harrisburg bank to open for business. Within one hour after robbery the doors of the bank were thrown open for business.

The ship companies and ship channels factories carry some pay rolls through the bank. Besides casning ship workers' checks there was no attempt made to "run" the bank.

While the doors were closed and helpers worked furiously to liberate those in the vault, the news of the robbery spread quickly throughout Harrisburg and Houston. Motorcycle policemen of Harrisburg traced the bandits' car down the Telephone cutoff road, through the Country club, down Harrisburg boulevard and thru Eastwood. Trace of the robbers was lost when they entered the business section of Houston.

Holdups Well Concealed.

When the doors of the banks were thrown open, hundreds of residents from Harrisburg and Houston flocked to the scene. Officers made an attempt to round up all persons who could give a description of the holdups.

Due to the fact that the men stood behind the railing most of the time, only their faces were noticed.

The bank faces east on Broadway Aevnue. On the south side of the bank runs Cypress street and at the rear of the bank is Madena avenue. The bank is one story high and contains one large room partitioned off in cages and offices.

Directly in front of the door is the cashier's cage, occupied by Mr. Collins. There are two windows to his office, one directly in front of the door and one at the side. Behind his cage is that of the assistant cashier, who was at dinner at the time of the robbery. Behind that is note teller's position, occupied by Mrs. D.D. Beard. Further to the rear is the safe deposit vault, which was occupied by Miss Corinne Cosby.

The robbers drove down Cypress and stopped their car at the side of the bank. The top was down and the motor was left running. Looking from a window facing her cage, Mrs Beard noticed the automobile. The windshield was shaking and she remarked that some one had left the motor running. Paying no more attention to the automobile, she continued with her work. Mr. Collins was checking some figures in the front cage.

Entry Skillful

The two men entered the bank quietly. One of the men stepped to Mr. Collins' window with his back turned directly upon two customers, Mr. and Mrs. B. Cook of Pasadena, who sat on the left. The other man turned through the president's office at the right and walked to the rear of Mr. Collins' cage.

Then the first man said "Hands up." Thinking it was one of the employes or a customer playing a trick on him, Mr. Collins replied, "In a minute." After checking a few more figures he looked up and into the muzzle of a pistol thrust under the window of cage. Mr. Collins put up his hand and stepped back. The robber at the rear then spoke to him. The tallest man, who stood in the lobby, passed to the left of the cages and threw his gun upon Mrs. Beard and Mr. and Mrs. Cook.

The shortest robber entered Mr. Collins' cage and rifled the drawers. He made no attempt to take several thousand dollars worth of checks and Liberty Bonds. After working quietly he walked into the assistant cashier's office and took some currency. He then entered the other cages, picking up bills only. He worked quietly and swiftly and finished in a few minutes. After he left the cages he demanded that Mr. Collins and Mrs. Beard enter the vault where Miss Cosby was working. She was not aware of the situation until the others had been ordered in the vault. The man in the lobby then demanded that the two customers pass through the president's office and step into the vault. The door was then closed and the combination nob was spun.

Escape Made Cleverly

The robbers dashed to their car, drove down Broadway to the Telephone road and turned toward Houston at a rapid speed, according to a negro who saw them depart. At the Country Club the men stopped the car, raised the top and cast off their makeup, according to the story of road workers who saw them.

A good description of the men was given by two small boys who saw them drive down Cypress. The men driving slowly by while they were pasting on the false mustache, eyebrows and whiskers, they said. According to the lads both men were rather young, but were made up to look old. The mustaches were very long and pointed, like those used in cheap plays of Wild West shows. One of the boys remarked: "I bet they are going to hold up the bank." His friend laughed at the idea, saying: "Why, they are only show men."

According to bank employes the men were careful to make no finger prints on the wood work. Only bills were taken and no clews could be found. No one was able to give the number of the automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Deadwyler, of Hamilton, came in last Saturday to visit Mrs. Deadwyler's sister, Mrs. Roy Griffith. Mr. Deadwyler returned to Hamilton Monday.

A full attendance was urged for next meeting as it will be the annual election of officers and report for last year's work read.

Program Rendered Tuesday Afternoon, March 2, General Inspection of the School.

On March 2, a meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association, was held for the purpose of general inspection of the school. On their arrival, the visitors inspected the playground activities of the grades. From 2:10 to 2:20, such games as baseball and drop the handkerchief employed the time of the little folks. After recess the visitors went to the various grades.

Reading was made a specialty from 2:30 to 3:00. There were about 240 parents who visited these classes.

The visitors then went to the auditorium, where a meeting of the board was held in connection with the regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association. The following program was rendered:

1. Music by Orchestra.
2. Physical Culture Exercises.
3. Music by School Glee Club.
4. Reading, "Aunt Jerusha's Visit to the City," by Ollie Clinton.
5. Song, "Himne Nacional de Espana," Earl Bragg.
7. Report of Boys' Society, Joyce Cox.

The regular business sessions were held, over which Dr. Epperson presided. First there was a meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association, at which the general work of the school was discussed, and plans to organize a community library. The School Board also held a meeting, after which the parents and teachers adjourned.

Boys' Club

On Thursday evening, March 4, there was a very interesting and instructive meeting of the Boys' Club. There were thirteen boys present, and of this number, seven will enter the Declamation Contest. The special study for the evening was declamation. After a study of how to memorize, and how to give declamations, two of the members delivered declamations on which they expect to capture the honors of the coming contest.

Our Club has been making great progress lately under oud able instructors, Mr. Crawford and Miss Williams.

The Girls' Club

The Girls' Club met in regular session, Thursday afternoon, March 4. After the business was attended to, a very interesting Y. W. C. A. program was carried out. On this program was a talk by Mr. Kidd, which was very uplifting and inspiring.

The club is to be complimented for its accomplishments. The committee are working enthusiastically, and the entire club is displaying "pep."

C. L. C.

The C. L. C. met as usual on Thursday afternoon, March 4, 1920. The subject for debate was "Styles." The program was carried out by the following members.

Miss Ruby Caton, representing the Evening Styles; Miss Sallie Coleman, the Home Styles: Miss Martha Lou Hooks, the Church Styles, and Miss Pauline Green, the School Styles. This program was very effectively carried out.

After the program was completed, the girls made some fudge, and Misses Reid and Work, who were present, certainly enjoyed it.

Department of Fine Arts

The number of Cam-Hi students represented in the Department of Fine Arts is especially large this year. There is an estimate of sixty in that department. We can see by this number that the students of Cameron High School are not only taking an interest in the courses of the High School itself, but also in the parallel courses offered.

Cam-Hi Honor Roll

The grades for the second quarter were quite good considering the fact that during the quarter we had the thanksgiving and Christmas holidays The following students, having done an exceptional fine quality of work, deserve special mention:

All A's—Pauline Green, Alice Garrison, Alice Lawrence, Bassett Watson, Mary Joe Harlan.

Three A's—Ralph Joynes, Carleton Ireland, Lee Tag, Joyce Cox, Alvin Dusek, Gladys Harris.

Two A's—Martha Lou Hooks, Leonard Mewhinney, John Henry Yoe, Billie Averiett, Joe Moehler, Jennie Lou Bryant, Farnces Hefley, Hazel Lyles, August Knipp, Jewel Osborne, Jeffie Wilburn.

This indicates that our school has a large number of students doing work much above the average, and who are ambitious to be at the bottom of things. The above named students are the best 15 per cent in Cam-Hi.

University Interscholastic League

The county meeting of the University Interscholastic League will be held at Cameron, April 6. As the meeting is going to be in Cameron, we have decided to make it more successful for us than it has been in the past years. All of the Cam-Hi students who are going to participate in the meeting have been working hard and earnestly hope to take the honors, and the teachers think our chances are good for a successful meet for Cam-Hi.

Baseball News

For the past few weeks, the athletic field has seen some activities along baseball line. Coach Cameron and Captain Denson have been putting the aspirants to the team thru a hard tryout. Sometimes when the star outfielder misses a good one, or when the best pitcher throws such a wide one that the catcher can't catch it, the coach and captain probably want to say something which it would be best to leave unsaid, but you can't blame them.

Friday, the 12th of March, Cam-Hi will open her baseball season with a game with Belton High. We have not heard that Belton is out for the State Championship like Taylor was last year, and we feel sure that the Cam-Hi nine will have the first victory of the season on that day, and we hope to have a season of victories for Cam-Hi on the diamond.

"In the springtime, a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love." Yes, and his eyes begin to wander to the athletic field, and his hand starts in to itch for the feel of a glove, and the grasp of a bat. And this is the weather for smokin' up, for talking over past games, and dreaming of the ones to come. The baseball bug is workin overtime on Fandom., Isn't it a grand and glorious feelin'? What's a gatherng now without some talk of C. H. S. diamond prospects? Of course they are bright, but will they materialize? Certainly.

HALF YOUR LIVING WITHOUT MONEY COST

Atlanta, Ga.—(Special.)—"Tens of thousands of farmers in the South will face the problem of making cotton under heavy weevil infestation for the first time in 1920. Their success or failure under these new conditions will be absolutely dependent on the degree that there is food, grain and forage produced on their farms this year," said H. G. Hastings, president of both the Georgia Chamber of Commerce and the Southeastern Fair.

"A few weeks ago the newspapers carried the report that an Alabama county was preparing to erect a monument to the boll weevil, because of the good the weevil had done them in forcing them out of the 'all-cotton' poverty-producing rut, into the prosperity that always follows a diversity of crops and the production on home acres of every pound possible of food, grain and forage supplies needed by the family and live stock.

"Our good people here in the South have never, until very recently, taken the home or family vegetable garden seriously as a source of food supply. It has been looked on strictly as a side issue, something of little importance, something to be attended to the last thing on the place. The home garden, rightly handled, can be made to produce half the food needed by the family and practically without money cost.

"The average 'lick and promise' sort of a garden has little value. To be of real value the garden must be planned for, really prepared for, planted right and kept cultivated through the season, and cultivated whenever needed. That kind of a garden will keep its owner's table well supplied with an abundance of healthful food seven or eight months in the year, as well as furnishing an abundance of canned and dried vegetables for winter use.

"Every mess of vegetables direct from garden to table, every can or jar of home-canned vegetables from closet shelves, makes a hole in that store bill that is always a terror when 'settling' time comes.

"Good home gardens have been real life savers to thousands of southern farmers who have gone 'flat broke' trying to meet store bills. A good garden will cut the store bill until its size is negligible. Give the garden a fair chance and a square deal in 1920 and the result will be agreeably surprising."

On Thursday evening, March 4, there was a very interesting and instructive meeting of the Boys' Club. There were thirteen boys present, and of this number, seven will enter the Declamation Contest. The special study for the evening was declamation. After a study of how to memorize, and how to give declamations, two of the members delivered declamations on which they expect to capture the honors of the coming contest.

Our Club has been making great progress lately under oud able instructors, Mr. Crawford and Miss Williams.

The Girls' Club

The Girls' Club met in regular session, Thursday afternoon, March 4. After the business was attended to, a very interesting Y. W. C. A. program was carried out. On this program was a talk by Mr. Kidd, which was very uplifting and inspiring.

The club is to be complimented for its accomplishments. The committee are working enthusiastically, and the entire club is displaying "pep."

C. L. C.

The C. L. C. met as usual on Thursday afternoon, March 4, 1920. The subject for debate was "Styles." The program was carried out by the following members.

Miss Ruby Caton, representing the Evening Styles; Miss Sallie Coleman, the Home Styles; Miss Martha Lou Hooks, the Church Styles, and Miss Pauline Green, the School Styles. This program was very effectively carried out.

After the program was completed, the girls made some fudge, and Misses Reid and Work, who were present, certainly enjoyed it.

Department of Fine Arts

The number of Cam-Hi students represented in the Department of Fine Arts is especially large this year. There is an estimate of sixty in that department. We can see by this number that the students of Cameron High School are not only taking an interest in the courses of the High School itself, but also in the parallel courses offered.

Cam-Hi Honor Roll

The grades for the second quarter were quite good considering the fact that during the quarter we had the thanksgiving and Christmas holidays The following students, having done an exceptional fine quality of work, deserve special mention:

All A's—Pauline Green, Alice Garrison, Alice Lawrence, Bassett Watson, Mary Joe Harlan.

Three A's—Ralph Joynes, Carleton Ireland, Lee Tag, Joyce Cox, Alvin Dusek, Gladys Harris.

Two A's—Martha Lou Hooks, Leonard Mewhinney, John Henry Yoe, Billie Averiett, Joe Moehler, Jennie Lou Bryant, Farnces Hefley, Hazel Lyles, August Knipp, Jewel Osborne, Jeffie Wilburn.

This indicates that our school has a large number of students doing work much above the average, and who are ambitious to be at the bottom of things. The above named students are the best 15 per cent in Cam-Hi.

University Interscholastic League

The county meeting of the University Interscholastic League will be held at Cameron, April 6. As the meeting is going to be in Cameron, we have decided to make it more successful for us than it has been in the past years. All of the Cam-Hi students who are going to participate in the meeting have been working hard and earnestly hope to take the honors, and the teachers think our chances are good for a successful meet for Cam-Hi.

Baseball News

For the past few weeks, the athletic field has seen some activities along baseball line, Coach Cameron and Captain Denson have been putting the aspirants to the team thru a hard tryout. Sometimes when the star outfielder misses a good one, or when the best pitcher throws such a wide one that the catcher can't catch it, the coach and captain probably want to say something which it would be best to leave unsaid, but you can't blame them.

Friday, the 12th of March, Cam-Hi will open her baseball season with a game with Belton High. We have not heard that Belton is out for the State Championship like Taylor was last year, and we feel sure that the Cam-Hi nine will have the first victory of the season on that day, and we hope to have a season of victories for Cam-Hi on the diamond.

"In the springtime, a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love." Yes, and his eyes begin to wander to the athletic field, and his hand starts in to itch for the feel of a glove, and the grasp of a bat. And this is the weather for smokin' up, for talking over past games, and dreaming of the ones to come. The baseball bug is workin overtime on Fandom.. Isn't it a grand and glorious feelin'? What's a gatherng now without some talk of C. H. S. diamond prospects? Of course they are bright, but will they materialize? Certainly.

HALF YOUR LIVING WITHOUT MONEY COST

Atlanta, Ga.—(Special.)—"Tens of thousands of farmers in the South will face the problem of making cotton under heavy weevil infestation for the first time in 1920. Their success or failure under these new conditions will be absolutely dependent on the degree that there is food, grain and forage produced on their farms this year," said H. G. Hastings, president of both the Georgia Chamber of Commerce and the Southeastern Fair.

"A few weeks ago the newspapers carried the report that an Alabama county was preparing to erect a monument to the boll weevil, because of the good the weevil had done them in forcing them out of the 'all-cotton' poverty-producing rut, into the prosperity that always follows a diversity of crops and the production on home acres of every pound possible of food, grain and forage supplies needed by the family and live stock.

"Our good people here in the South have never, until very recently, taken the home or family vegetable garden seriously as a source of food supply. It has been looked on strictly as a side issue, something of little importance, something to be attended to the last thing on the place. The home garden, rightly handled, can be made to produce half the food needed by the family and practically without money cost.

"The average 'lick and promise' sort of a garden has little value. To be of real value the garden must be planned for, really prepared for, planted right and kept cultivated through the season, and cultivated whenever needed. That kind of a garden will keep its owner's table well supplied with an abundance of healthful food seven or eight months in the year, as well as furnishing an abundance of canned and dried vegetables for winter use.

"Every mess of vegetables direct from garden to table, every can or jar of home-canned vegetables from closet shelves, makes a hole in that store bill that is always a terror when 'settling' time comes.

"Good home gardens have been real life savers to thousands of southern farmers who have gone 'flat broke' trying to meet store bills. A good garden will cut the store bill until its size is negligible. Give the garden a fair chance and a square deal in 1920 and the result will be agreeably surprising."
